

BBBSH EVENTS:

THIS SATURDAY, PANIOLO FAMILY FUN DAY:

· For those of you signed-up for this event, plans are in the works for an exciting, fun day. You can begin arriving around 9:30am to check-in with the show to begin at 10. Following the show, a delicious bento has been ordered for you from the Ranch kitchen and then following lunch, you will be allowed to take one of 3-seats available tours being offered by the Ranch. Priority will be given those already with tour RSVPs, but please remember, none of the RSVPs are guaranteed until paying customers are taken care of first. If you can't get on to your desired tour, you may have the option to get on to another. The Jungle Expedition will have the least available seating with the Movie tour and Ocean Voyaging being more available. The Ocean Voyaging tour which is a catamaran ride around the bay is pretty scenic and that you don't necessarily get wet.

Reminder info: For the Paniolo show, you'll be sitting on concrete benches and if it is a sunny day, it can get hot so please plan accordingly to wear comfortable clothing. Bring sunscreen, a hat or whatever you may need, but dress casually and comfortably. We'll have a couple thermos' of ice water always available. For lunch, the area that we'll be in has very limited seating but there's a lot of huge trees and shade. Bring ground covering or beach chairs if you desire in case you don't get a seat. We'll also set up a few blankets and ground covering for you to use in case you don't have anything to sit on.

I also want to encourage and remind anyone that we have the essay and costume contests to participate in for the movie day too. The essay can be anything to do with transformers or robots that has to do with the movie itself, a comic, a completely made-up story or anything creative the Little wants to write about.
